

Mizna's Arab Film Fest + SooVAC present a visual art exhibition + indie film series by SWANA artists

Let There Be Spaces in Your Togetherness

January 30–February 27, 2020 • Kiehle Gallery + Miller Center Auditorium

Thursday January 30, 2020

Reception 4–6pm @ Kiehle Gallery

Dachra– 6:30–9pm @ Miller Center Auditorium

Let There Be Spaces in Your Togetherness is a group visual arts exhibition by local and national artists from the Southwest Asian and North African (SWANA) region or of SWANA descent. Juried by Lamia Abukhadra, HEND Al-Mansour, Essma Imady.

Image: Untitled (Dinner) by Nabil Harb

Set in Tunisia, Dachra follows a group of journalism students on assignment. In pursuit of answers, the three friends stumble into the archaic and ominous world of Dachra, an isolated compound filled with goats, drying meat, and menacing silence. When a local invites them to stay overnight, they are drawn into Dachra's dark secrets and a desperate attempt to escape alive.

More info + full film schedule at mizna.org